SHEFFIELD-THE SENTENCE OF THE FORGERS. -The Manchester Examiner of July 11 gives the following on the termination of the trial of the two individuals charged with having forged greenbacks at Sheffield. The case was before the York Assizes Crown
Court, Mr. Justice Meller presiding. The continue until the first week in March, 1864. Examiner says:

Edwin Hides and Henry Light, who, on the previous day, had been found guilty of forging American $10 notes, commonly known as "greenbacks," at Sheffield, were this morning brought up for seutence. On the part of the prosecution, Hides had been recommended to the merciful consideration of the Court, and his lordship stated that he took this into account, as well as the good character which had been given him, when he sentenced him to fifteen months' imprisonment. Light, who was deeper in the scheme than Hides, his lordship sentenced to four years' penal servitude.

President Lord and Dartmouth College,

The Trustees of Dartmouth College have published a statement relative to the resignation of President Lord. From this document it appears that at a meeting of the Trustees on the 23d of July, certain preceedings of the Merrimac county Conference of Congregational Churches in June were brought before the Board for their consideration. They consisted of a series of resolutions and report thereon by a committee The resolutions declare that it is the duty of the Trustees of Dartmouth College, in view of the prejudice existing against its President on account of his avowed peculiar sentiments on the war, to enquire if the interests of the College do not demand a change n its Presidency. These resolutions were referred to a committee of the Conference who reported that it was not expedient to present the resolutions to the Trustees, but ecommended that they be printed for circuation. The resolutions therefore appear to have been brought to the notice of the Trustees indirectly. They adopted a series of resolutions declaring that Dartmouth College sympathizes heartily with the Government in its efforts to put down the rebellion, Billy gives a whole homily when he says of Dartmouth who have engaged in the war.

Since our last issue we have the Official the other States of the North.' Returns from 22 additional counties, which are published in this number of our paper, these 80 counties is For Judge Bramlette ...

The Newark Daily Advertiser, speak. ing of the result of our election, says:

Henry Clay's and Crittenden's old congressional district has been disgraced by the election of an Abolitionist, Brutus Clay, brother of Cassius M. Clay, a pet of this Administration.

The statement that this district has been disgraced, by the election of Brutus J. Clay, is a foul slander upon the intelligence and patriotism of the people of the district-a peo ple, who in point of intelligence, patriotism, conservatism, and a proper knowledge of the political history, and the political wants of the nation, are among the foremost in the Abolitionist is an inexcusable slander upon one of the purest patriots in all the nation, who never, at any period of his life entertained an Abolition sentiment, or even an emancipation sentiment, and never, in any moment of his life, whether in public life or in his intercourse with the people, in the varied relations which he has borne, done any or indirectly, promote Abolition or emancipation. Mr. Clay is above Abolitionismhe has too much sense and too much patriotism to be an Abolitionist. If the Newark Advertiser was as free from the taint of treason, as Brutus J. Clay is of Abolition, it would be fortunate.

Kentucky, and Kentucky statesmen, have been for two years the victims of the ignorance, malignity and hate of Northern Abolitionists and Copperheads; but conscious of her patriotism and wisdom, her people will, as they have always done, steadily pursue the path of duty, honor and dignity.

The National Intelligencer, in speak ing of the recent election in this State says The members from Kentucky will have a very important position in the next Congress, as it is not unlikely they will hold the balance of power between the Republicans and regular Democrats."

The Kentucky Election and What it Means.

Very few Northern newspapers seem to and result of our recent election. Some of the Republican papers affect to claim it as a triumph for their cause and an endorsement of the Administration, while on the othnals look upon it as the result of intimida Northern papers, there is one which understands its full force and meaning and views the result of it as honorable to the patriotism and intelligence of the State, and as a triumph of the country, which ought to be held as such by all loyal men everywhere. That staunch Democratic paper, the Boston Post, has the subjoined remarks on the Kentucky election. The Post squarely hits the nail on the head. A juster appreciation of the subject could not be conceived.
